

Are You Homeless or At Risk of Becoming Homeless?

Start with A Coordinated Entry Assessment
Visit An Access Site

What is Coordinated Entry?

A process designed to connect individuals and families experiencing, or at risk of, homelessness to emergency resources within Wake County

Access Sites Can:

- ◇ Provide friendly and compassionate service
- ◇ Assess your needs
- ◇ Assist in coming up with creative solutions
- ◇ Assist in figuring out what resources are available to you
- ◇ Provide referrals to shelters, street outreach projects, or prevention programs as needed

Access Sites Cannot:

- ◇ Provide immediate shelter or hotel vouchers
- ◇ Determine or guarantee eligibility for community resources
- ◇ Provide financial assistance
- ◇ Provide transportation or bus passes
- ◇ Act as landlords, housing providers, or housing navigators/locations

Coordinated Entry Can Make the Following:

- Referrals to Shelters
- Referrals to Street Outreach Teams
- Referrals to the Wake County Homelessness Prevention Program, Wake Prevent! (May also be contacted directly)
